New Equipment

1. Monroe Educator calculator
2. Remington printing calculator
3. Underwood electric typewriter
4. Bacteria incubator
5. Geiger counter
6. Singer sewing machine
7. Shown under construction are the new science room work tables with built-in sinks and individual water, gas, and electric outlets.
8. Finishing touches are shown being put on the new field house for football and track use. The building contains two dressing rooms, public rest rooms, a ticket office, and a concession stand.

Not pictured are the new stage curtains in the auditorium, the high work stools for use in the science laboratories, and the trampoline used in the Physical Education departments.

New Construction

Efficient... spacious... up-to-date... describe the new wing constructed this year. The concrete block-steel-brick structure houses completely the industrial arts and vocational agriculture departments. Each department has its own classrooms, offices, lockers, work rooms, and toilet facilities. The modern designs of architecture are used with windows and glass comprising nearly half of the walls, which permits an extensive use of natural lighting. Approximate construction cost was $77,000. Excavation began in the early fall with the Open House and Dedication on May 3, 1956.

As Seaman Rural High School extends its educational opportunities by constructing new buildings, installing new equipment, and offering more new subjects, and retains its high standards of citizenship and sportsmanship, it is evident that the records of the year should also be extended so that in our memories we shall ever retain that pride of being a part of such an institution. It is the purpose of the 1956 SEAMAN to be that record, and to let its pages relive every outstanding moment we have experienced in our classes, our club meetings and activities, and our social events.

Those of us who have been responsible for this yearbook are proud to present a continuation of the new design introduced last year, and even more pleased to report an increase of pages, from ninety-six to one-hundred. It is the hope of the Yearbook Staff that for every reader of our book, we have definitely "pictured the year."

Our Four-Year Review

MORNING

As if starting a brand new day, sixty-five young Seamanites embarked upon the experience of our lives--high school! In the early hours of this first forenoon, 1952, we chose Carol Ann Wendel, president; Larry Brady, vice-president; Marilyn Levett, secretary, and Kenneth Falley, treasurer, to be our official guides. Two class skating parties provided loads of fun, and lots of bruises! A picnic at Gage park was a terrific ending for a terrific year, thanks to Miss Cox and Mr. Smith, our sponsors.

NOON

Just as noon marks mid-day, our Sophomore year marked the midpoint of our high school career! President Mary Lou Frev, vice-president Larry Hoffman, secretary Wade Halley, and treasurer Ernestine Adams were elected from our class of sixty-three. Our wild and woolly hay-rack ride and weiner roast will not soon be forgotten! Mr. Bierman and Mr. Rorabaugh sponsored us as we finished our second year at Seaman with a class picnic and ball game at Gage Park.

EVENING

Our anxiously anticipated Junior year finally arrived, just like an exciting evening planned months in advance! We felt we were achieving worthwhile experiences in both schoolwork and activities, and we elected the following officers to prove it: Larry Brady, president, Marilyn Levett, vice-president; Carol Ann Wendel, secretary, and Larry Hoffman, treasurer. There were sixty-eight members in our class, which was the largest number we ever had to our credit. Moving day from the old Seaman building to the new was a big event and a surprising combination of work with fun. We had two history class picnics at Mr. Emrich's farm; and our Junior party, a dress-up sock hop, was held in the study hall. Mrs. Gooch and Mr. Wahl, class sponsors, were really a big help in making the Junior-Senior Prom, as well as the whole year, very successful. Our class picnic at Lake Shawnee was the perfect ending for the year.

MIDNIGHT

Our Senior year was truly the 'end of a perfect day!' An all-male cast of officers steered the fifty-nine of us through an action-filled year. President Larry Hoffman, vice-president Bill Meacham, secretary Larry Brady, and treasurer Richard Kingman were our 1956 leaders and our sponsors were Miss Wilson and Mr. Frederick. Our beautiful Senior rings arrived in September, and we were happy to know that we were the first class to order them as Juniors so that we could wear them our whole Senior year. Rainy weather didn't hinder our Play Day--much! After being nearly soaked with rain, it didn't make much difference to be thrown into Lake Waunsee! Our caps and gowns and announcements were ordered, we took several guidance, business, and college entrance tests, and we began to think a little harder about raising our grades up a little higher! The Juniors did a fine job in presenting the Junior-Senior Prom at the Jayhawk Koof Garden and their Wishing Well theme made us feel rather sentimental. Our Baccalaureate service was held in the Auditorium and was very impressive. Our last picnic as a class, held at Lake Shawnee, provided lots of fun.

As we marched out over the football field to our Commencement exercises, the beauty of the decorations and of the night helped us to understand that as midnight ends one day and begins the next, we, too, were finishing one lovely part of our lives but were beginning something new. The Graduates' Ball in the gymnasium climaxed our final year, and we knew then that our day was finished.

The Seaman Bank was established 29 years ago to give students actual experience in handling problems of the business world. Each fall, stock is offered for sale to students at one dollar a share. Purchasers then become eligible to work as tellers in the bank. Our bank is used by the student body, the organizations, and the faculty. It handles approximately $20,000 a year and operates from the Kaw Valley Citizens State Bank in North Topeka.

A newly formed vocal group this year is our popular Madrigal Singers. They have sung many programs both as a single unit, and separately as the Boys' Ensemble and Girls' Ensemble. The ancient Madrigals, from which this group takes its name, wore white, powdered wigs and frilly, lacy costumes, and sang sitting around a large, round table.

Champs

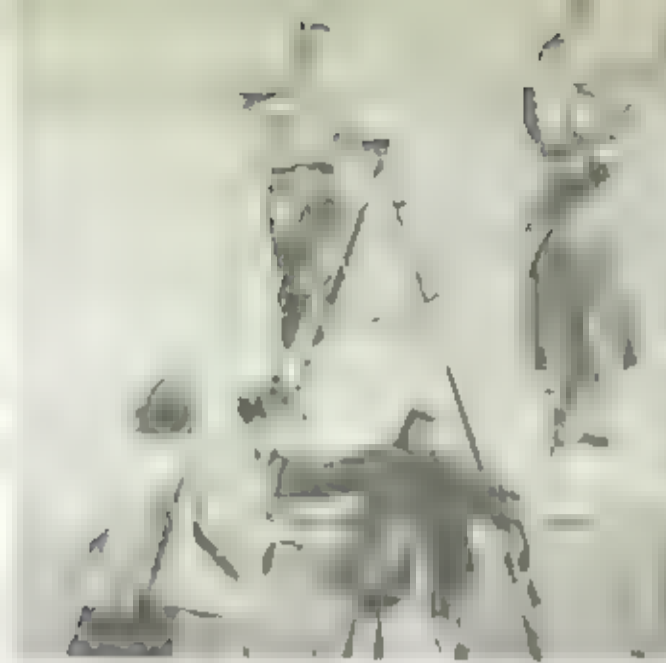

Larry Brady
was crowned Homecoming
King by Queen Sandy Saia, October 14, 1955, before the football game between Seaman and Washburn Rural.
Larry and his attendants, Larry Hoffman and Leon Winters, were chosen by the Pep club. To top off a successful evening
Seaman was victorious over Washburn Rural, 40-0.

Royalty

Sandy Saia was crowned Homecoming Queen by King Larry Brady, who presented her with a bouquet of red and white carnations. She and her attendants, Doris Glasgow and Mary Lou Frey, were chosen by the football squad. Doris and Mary Lou were presented corsages of white chrysanthemums by the King's attendants, Larry Hoffman and Larry Brady.
